GRADUATION BANQUET HELD

The fifth Graduating Class from Drayton Valley High School, their parents and friends, along with other guests, sat down to a sumptuous turkey dinner in the Cardium Room of the Drayton Valley Hotel, the evening of Friday, May 30.

This was the fifth Graduation since the establishment of the Senior High School in Drayton Valley, for the 1953-54 season. At the first Graduation four graduates were present. The 1955 class had four also, who graduated; the 1956 class was a smaller one, with only two graduating that year. In 1957 the growth was noticeable, with nine getting diplomas that year; with the eleven graduating this year and one undergraduate. At the present time there are some twenty grade eleven students who should be eligible to graduate next year. Some of these may leave before the time of graduation next year, and others may take their place, so in all probability the graduating class of 1959 will be a full twenty or more.

Those graduating from the 1958 class were Robert Earl Barker, Eunice May Davies, James Charles Edmunds, Barbara Lynne Ewert, Kathleen L.H. Glass, Marion Emma Hruschak, Oscar Joseph Parenteau, Barbara Lucille Plotts, Clara Erma Pollock, Sherry Lenora Scott and Sheila Louise Vandergrift. Undergraduate was Elmer Madson.

Most of these who graduated have definite plans for further study. Mr. Barker plans to take up draughting; Miss Davies expects to take up nursing, as do Miss Ewert and Miss Pollock, also. Two members of the graduating class hope some day to hang out their doctors' shingles, Miss Glass and Miss Plotts.

An engineer will come out of the group, as Mr. Edmunds plans to make that his profession; Mr. Parenteau expects to go in the field of Education.

Valedictorian Miss Marion Hruschak, although she plans to pursue further studies, is at present undecided just what profession she will take up. Also under-grads are Miss Scotland Miss Vandergrift.

Class Prophecies, as read by Sheila Vandergrift, appear on the inside of this paper. A picture of Graduates and High School teachers, with Guest Speaker Dr. Johns and Mrs. Johns, will also be found on an inside page.

As the group sat down to the flower-decked tables to begin the banquet, Rev. Fr. Scriven said Grace. Following the dinner, acting as Master of Ceremonies for the occasion, Jimmie Edmunds prop and the Toast to the Queen. To "The Graduates" was given by Kent Williamson, with reply given by Eunice Davies.

A trio, Clara Pollock, Barbara Plotts and Barbara Ewert entertained the group with songs, followed by the introduction of Graduates by Miss Wolters.

A short address to the graduating class and visitors was given by Mayor Howard Fekup. To "The Parents" was given by Sherry Scott, with Reply given by Mr. Williams Davies, following which a Piano Duet was given by Miss Walker and Miss Ewert.

The toast to "The Staff" was given by Robert Barker, with Reply given by Mr. Michael Zemharko. The Chorus then sang "You'll Never Walk Alone", which was followed by the Class History, read by Kathleen Glass and Class Prophecies, read by Sheila Vandergrift.

The Valedictorian Address, given by Miss Marion Hruschak, will be found on the inside of this issue.

"Farewell, Dear Alma Mater" was sung by the Graduating Class.

Guest Speaker for the event was Dr. Johns, Vice-president of the University of Alberta. In the course of his address to the students Dr. Johns said...

REMEMBER THE RODEO - AUGUST 2 & 4

KEN MASON'S COLUMN.

Alberta's new liquor laws went into effect last Sunday, June 1, but it will be a month or more before the public notices anything different.

In addition to the time it takes for license-granting machinery to get rolling under the new laws, there is a strong possibility that residents of many communities will have to decide the drinking question all over again in local option votes.

If no local option votes are demanded, about the earliest date for licensing restaurants and cocktail lounges is July 15. The big hotels in the national parks may be the first to qualify, because they are anxious to be in operation for at least part of the tourist season, and will have their applications in shortly.

The railways were expected to be the first to take advantage of the new laws, because they weren't subject to local option votes. Under the laws, liquor can be served on trans-continental trains passing through the province. The facilities are already there, so all it means is that the bar will remain open in Alberta, leaving Saskatchewan the only dry province for rail travelers.

The question of local option is in the hands of the province's temperance groups. Rev. A.L. Sanderson, general secretary of the Associated Temperance Forces of Alberta, said last week his group plans to "take action" in areas where the dry forces think they have a chance of winning.

There are areas where the chances of a dry vote are good. Although the province as a whole voted strongly in favor of relaxed liquor laws in last fall's plebiscite, there are individual constituencies which voted "no". Mr. Sanderson said it will be up to the local groups to decide whether they will take action.

Under the new laws, passed this year, a local option vote must be held if a petition demanding it is signed by 500 persons or 10 percent of the qualified voters in a community, whichever is less.

The provincial cabinet last week put the finishing touches on regulations under the three new liquor acts.

Under the regulations, when an application for a license is received, it must be advertised on two occasions, at least five days apart, and then there is a 30-day waiting period before a license is granted.

So far nearly 300 inquiries have been received by the liquor board. Copies of the new laws and regulations were being sent out this week to all who enquired.

In a statement of policy issued last week, Premier Manning said the liquor

Social Crediters are looking for a new political leader. Solon E. Low, 58, last week announced his retirement from the post. He made the announcement at...of all places.... a Progressive Conservative meeting in Ottawa.

Political pundits are wondering who will go the job. In the past, it has been rumored that Premier Manning might consider going into federal politics. Asked about the possibility last week, the premier replied: "How many times do I have to answer that question?"

Someone said he didn't have to answer it again so long as the answer was the same. "I'll let you know as soon as it's different," he said. You'll note he didn't say he wouldn't take the job, and some observers are still insisting it's a possibility.

There are other candidates for the national Social leadership. Among those mentioned are Orvis Kennedy, the national organizer, and Ambrose Holowach, who represented Edmonton East in the Commons until last March. Observers here discount the possibility of any British Columbia-type Social Crediters taking over.

Mrs. Halliday is president of the Pembina Deanery. Mr. Swinton will be the minister in attendance and Mrs. MacEure will be guest speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Sadler, from Brandon, Manitoba, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. A. Smith and her family. Mr. and Mrs. Sadler say a rain like ours would be very much appreciated in Brandon district at the present time.

Mrs. Madsen invited a few friends for a surprise party on the occasion of her husband's birthday. Evidently Mr. Madsen was really kept in the dark about the affair for when the guests arrived he was fanning grain and was suitably dressed for that shore.

LIONS TO STAGE WRESTLING CARD.

Originally announced for the Rodeo Grounds, it was decided at the recent Lions meeting on Tuesday, June 3rd, that the wrestling card sponsored by the Lions for Friday night June 6, would be put on instead in the Community Hall as there is always a question as to how weather conditions might be for the putting on of outdoor events.

The Card will feature Clem St. Louis and Dennis Fouldland in the Opening Match. In the semi-finals will be Lady Wrestlers, Marge Cheski, or Edmonton and Yvonne Ames of Portland.

Main Event will be a Tag Team Match between the Osborne brothers, Ray and Bud, of Jasper Place vs. Jack Kye, of Spokane and Al Klein of Camrose. Phil Klein will referee.

At the regular fortnightly meeting of the Lions Club held in the Cardium Room on Tuesday last arrangements were made for the manning of the pumps at Stewart Motors by Lions members on the day of their tag teaming of the Service Station, on Saturday, June 14. All proceeds from the pumps for that day have been donated by Lion member Stu. Lunan, owner of Stewart Motors, to go to the Lions project of furnishing a room in the Drayton Valley Municipal Hospital. All are urged to "tank up" on that day to help out in the hospital project.

All proceeds above expenses taken in the wrestling card will also be used by the Lions toward the Hospital Project.

"QUEEN FOR MOTHERS DAY" CONTEST.

In the "Queen for Mothers Day" contest staged by CFRR-TV, in which listeners were invited to write in the name of someone in their neighborhood whom they felt was entitled to the "crown" as Mothers Day Queen, a local woman, Mrs. Barbara Lapointe, came close to winning first honors. Mrs. Lapointe was judged second.

Mrs. Lapointe is a young mother of three children, Penny, aged 4, Ricky, aged 3, and Jimmy, aged 7 months. She is said to be a wonderfully helpful neighbor and delights in helping others; she particularly like to take her children to the Rotary playground and then help all the other children while she is there.

Always cheerful and smiling, Mrs. Lapointe is very well liked by all those who know her and the many letters which were sent in to CFRR-TV in her behalf will testify to that. Her husband, Mr. Lapointe, is employed in Drayton Valley.

SPECIAL MEETING TO BE HELD.

The Fellowship Church group of Drayton Valley will hold a special meeting on Saturday, June 7th, and Sunday, June 8. An evangelist, Mr. Wes. Shannon, will come out from Edmonton to help in the services, held in the Schoolhouse.

Due to lack of space we again had to leave out some items of news. One of these is the account of the Mother and Daughter Banquet and the W.I. Conference, these will appear in next week's in life....you will find a desire to know more, that you may better serve humanity and yourself". Dr. Johns also pointed to the fact, as had already been stressed during the course of the evening, that...."there is always room at the top", and that for those who applied themselves to study hard to reach certain specific goals unemployment should hold no threat.

Following the close of the speech and Banquet, friends and relatives crowded in to take pictures of the graduates and their teachers.

"CHICKEN ON THE WAY" LANDS HERE.

A catering firm in Edmonton, engaged to supply Mobil Oil's Pegasus Club with chicken dinners for their banquet which was held May 23 in Drayton Valley Community Hall, took this means of assuring that the meals would be piping hot on arrival in Drayton Valley.

Cooked in Edmonton, they were loaded on the plane, which took about 20 minutes in flight. Leaving the plane was met by the catering truck and the meals were rushed to the waiting Pegasus Club members.

FRIENDSHIP MEETING JUNE 12.

Drayton Valley United Church plan to put on a Friendship Meeting for all members and adherents. Everybody is welcome to attend; it is requested that each bring sandwiches, cake, or cookies. Other refreshments will be supplied. All are urged to come to the meeting which will be held in Scout Hall, at 8 p.m., Thursday, June 12. It is suggested that since this is a friendship meeting, each should bring a friend.

After the meeting in Pan American Safety Hall some of the members of the Commission went out on a field inspection trip, visiting the bridge over the Saskatchewan, etc.

DRAYTON VALLEY HOME AND SCHOOL.

Drayton Valley Home and School Association held their last meeting of this term on Wednesday, May 28. The election of officers for the coming term was held in spite of poor attendance.

Officers elected were: President: Mr. Halwa; Secretary- Mrs. Lockwood; Treasurer: Mr. Glass; Program Convenor- Mr. Byrum; Membership and Hospitality Committee- Mrs. Luchak and Mrs. Bullen; Social Committee - Mrs. MacClure; Mrs. Christofferson and Mrs. Corrigan. The Vice-President will be elected at the September meeting, and the committees will be filled at that time.

The retiring executive sincerely hopes that there will be more interest shown in the Home and School next year. In the past year there were approximately 750 children enrolled from Grades 1 to 9. The H. & S. members numbered 34. Surely there are more than 34 people interested in their children's education and welfare.

BERNICE FREE IN ACCIDENT.

Bernice Free was injured in an accident on the highway about 6 miles north of D.V. on Thursday, June 5, went a car in which she was riding was obscured by dust. She was removed to Royal Alex. hospital, but it is not believed her injuries are very critical. Also injured was Eric Gardner and Elaine Palmer.

HERE AND THERE.

Our apologies to Oilrides of Drayton Valley for not being able to print their fine write-up on their recent meeting in this week's paper. No room. However, we promise: NEXT WEEK.

Little Colleen Beckett, aged 4, thinks the P.N.A. is just the paper. Colleen lost her puppy and her daddy put an ad. in for it. The paper had not been on the street for an hour before some one read the ad. and returned her puppy.

PROPHCY FOR GRADUATING CLASS READ AT BANQUET.

Following hallowed Graduation custom, the prophecies for the graduates of 1958 class of Drayton Valley High School was read at the banquet given in the Gadium Room on Friday evening, May 30.

Sheila Vandergrift read the Class Prophecies; but before she read them Master of Ceremonies Jimmie Edmunds read her prophecy, which was as follows:

"Sheila Vandergrift, our Prophecy girl, whose life is all in a whirl, Has not decided her future as yet, But a cowboy will steal her heart we bet."

Sheila read the rest:

"Barbara Ewert's been with us a year, And nursing will be her chosen career. Switches and needles and bandages galore, Then probably have kids, one or more.

Can you picture our little Kay Glass Who has always been at the head of the class, With butcher knife and saw in hand, To make the best doctor in the land.

Omer with yard stick in hand, At the front of the class room stand, Teaching, he is planning to do, But still might be another Elvis too.

Our Valedictorian of the class, Marial will teach the younger mass. Although she is as quiet as a mouse, She will probably end up as someone's spouse.

Clara Pollock, our Mayerthorpe girl, Will keep the patients in a constant whirl.

Nursing is her chosen career, And hopes to go north to widen her sphere Bob whom we all know, Is taking up draughting and boy will he go.

Building and planning all the day, To make Canadian homes the modern way.

The future of one is uncertain, I guess, Sherry's been with us four years or less, A pharmacist, a model, which will it be, Or maybe a housewife, but let's wait and see.

Bonnie Davies, our blue-eyed brunnette, Has her future completely set, To foreign lands she plans to go, To nurse the sick from Rome to Oslo.

The Russians all think we are behind, But wait till Jim gets on the grind. He will make the bombs and prove the tests To show that we Canadians are the best.

Barbara Plotts, the blond haired beauty, Is off to do her solemn duty, When the "Doctor" sign hangs above her door,

We may be sure, she will have male patients galore.

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS GIVEN BY MARION HRUSCHAK.

Following is the very excellent Valedictory Address which was given by Miss Marion Hruschak at the Graduation Banquet, May 30.

"Tonight, we, graduates, are taking part in a ceremony which will long be treasured among our precious memories. It has special meaning to us because it marks the end of our school years and it also marks our entrance into the world, whether it is going directly to work or attending University.

While here in Senior High School we have learned many things. First, we have learned to reason, to draw conclusions and to express ourselves clearly. Next as we were being prepared for the university, we realized that the world in its complexity is infinitely more vast and complicated than we first suspected when we came here.

We, the members of the graduating class of 1958, are grateful for the training that has been given to us and we would like to express our gratitude.

First, we give our sincerest thanks to the parents who have encouraged us to proceed and helped us in every way possible so that the day of graduation might become a reality.

Next, we have a special thanks to our devoted teachers who have explained the necessities for our education.

To those who made time to help us with our extra-curricular activities, we give a warm thanks, for these activities have helped us to prepare for society, itself.

A valedictory address is traditionally a farewell address, and in truth it is time to say farewell to our school years, to one another, and to a way of life which has become a part of us. It seems natural to be a little sad as we find ourselves leaving these familiar surroundings, but we can look forward to the future with the hopes of successfully attaining our goals.

With fond memories of the past and hopeful anticipation of the future we say, "Farewell."

BOWLING ALLEY REMODELED.

Remodeling of the Bowlodrome Bowling Alley and Billiard Room has been in progress recently, along with a general spring cleanup; the alleys were shut down for a few days while the renovations were effected.

One alley was completely removed to give the billiard section more room. This will give a total of 3 alleys instead of 4.

The remaining alleys were re-sanded and shellacked.

AL CEMING TO BE PRESENT AT FATHER AND SON BANQUET JUNE 19.

Cubs will be the centre of interest on the night of June 19 when a Father and Son Banquet will be put on for them in Drayton Valley Scout Hall, at 6:30.

About twenty-five will be presented at that time with their first Star, six or more will receive their second Star and about ten new boys will be awarded their Tenderpad badges.

Present for the banquet, as well as the Cubs and their dads will be members of the Boy Scout and Cub Scout groups committee, Rotarians, who have recently become the sponsors for the local Scout organizations, will be present also for the occasion.

Outstanding attraction for all will be the speaker for the evening, Al. Ceming an outstanding naturalist, wrestling promoter, and president of the Edmonton Zoological Society, a group which is making arrangements for the acquiring of a Zoo for the City of Edmonton.

Scout and Cub Mothers will cater for the dinner, and a varied program of entertainment will be put on.

Members of the Scout and Cub Committee are: Art Dixon, representing Rotary; Harvey McGee, chairman of the group; Jack Hayland and Mrs. Hayland, and Mike Burke. Rev. Mr. Sayers is Cubmaster.

Assisting Mr. Sayers in the Cub program is Dunc. McRae, Lester, Vern Broadford, Alec Grant, Don Booker, Jack Tyler and Danny Mallon.

LOCAL FIRMS SPONSOR ENTRIES IN SOAPBOX DERBY.

Three local lads will be racing their "bugs" down O'Connell Hill in Edmonton on June 15, starting at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Those from Drayton Valley participating in the races will be Stevie Serenas, who built his car last year and entered to become a winner in his class of under twelve years; John Bright, Jr. and Gary Repka.

The races are sponsored by the Active Club of Edmonton and are open to all (next column) boys between the ages of nine and fifteen. Last year's event drew many entries from a large number of places outside of Edmonton, as well as from the city itself.

Derby rules state that the boy has to build his "buggy" himself. He is supplied with wheels and axles by the Active Club, which are given to him on loan. He gets to keep them for a couple of weeks after the race in order to display his entry, and then he turns them back to the Active Club, and gets them again next year, if he continues to race.

Local sponsors for Soap Box Derby entries are the Drayton Hardware, Pembina Drugstore, Bales Shopping Centre, Gardum Theatre, Drayton Valley Greeneries and the Pembina News Advertiser.

Following the races a banquet is held in the Seven Seas for the boys. The banquet is free to the boys, and their parents, sponsors or friends can join in for $1.50 a plate.

GOLIAD TO BUILD HOUSES.

Goliad Company, operators of the multi-million dollar gas gathering construction project in this area announced recently that they will make an immediate start on the erection of a number of houses for employees who will be stationed here permanently once the gathering system is installed.

At least four houses, and possible five, will be built in Drayton Valley, four, with a possibility of five houses will be built at the fractionating plant site at Buck Creek, and one house will be built at each of the eight compressor plants throughout the field. The company may also erect a permanent office in Drayton Valley, although nothing definite has yet been announced in that respect.

Mr. Ben Williams recently came to the Drayton Valley office of Goliad Company in the capacity of General Superintendent. Mr. Preston Rae is Construction Engineer for this project, Mr. Elmo Hinder will act as Superintendent of
